

LOCAL GOSSIP

Superintendent and Mrs C L. Burt left for Mountainair yesterday afternoon

H L Snodgrass of Duran, spent yesterday in the county seat on business

"Uncle John" Lasater writes the News that he and Mrs. Lasater will be back home about April 20.

Ralph Easley left for Santa Fe yesterday evening, after having spent several days here on legal business

James B Flemming, who has been working at El Paso for the past several months, returned home yesterday

Finis and Alonzo Atkinson came up from Corona yesterday in the former's auto to visit their mother, Mrs M D Atkinson.

T. H. Dickens of McIntosh was down on business yesterday. Mr. Dickens called at the News office to shove up his subscription another year.

Miss Nina Meyer assisted in the work at the local postoffice yesterday while Nick, the postmaster was busy with his contest before commissioner Jensen

J. U. Fry, who bought the Rozelle place north of McIntosh about a year ago, returned from Browley, California Monday and will take up his residence on his claim

Mrs M. Lentz and children will leave tomorrow for Albuquerque, where she will visit her aunt, who has been in the hospital there for an operation. Robert will play the orphan while the folks are away.

R R Carlin, who is looking over the country for a location left yesterday morning for Willard. As he said when boarding the train, if he did not find a more suitable place he would return, it is pretty safe to bet that he will be back soon

Judge M. T. Moriarty was in the county seat yesterday on personal business. The Judge is not losing any sleep over the proposed change in the name of the town bearing his name, which change is being advocated by some of those who have come to the valley more recently, and have not recognized the service the judge has rendered the town and valley during his quarter of a century of residence here.

Capt Groff was down from Antelope yesterday taking in the sights of the city.

George Hardin returned from Santa Fe yesterday, where he has spent the past few days on business.

I N. Shirley purchased the farm of Otto Branstetter south east of town yesterday. Mr Branstetter is at present in Oklahoma City

The Herald moved its equipment to the brick building north of the postoffice yesterday, where there will be more room in which to grow.

Mrs L Garland left for Oklahoma, yesterday morning on business connected with her property there. She will probably be away several months

H. J. Ryan, tie inspector for the Santa Fe railroad came in yesterday morning to inspect a number of ties, which E. Romero has ready for delivery to the road

Mrs. Clark Roley came down from Santa Fe yesterday morning and will take up her residence on the claim. Clark is still working in the Ancient City and will not return until time to put in a crop.

George Torrance was down from McIntosh yesterday. George is a loyal booster for his home city, but the lure of a great city gets in his veins occasionally and he simply has to come to Estancia to see the sights

Ralph H Kinsloe of El Paso, Texas, representing the Texas Oil Company came up from Willard yesterday in the Watkins Auto. Mr Kinsloe remarked that the saying "I just blew in," would be very appropriate today

"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.
It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.
PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.
Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds.
There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.

MAKING YOURSELF SAFE

If you had a tree hanging over your house, just about ready to fall, you would not rest until you had taken it away. Poverty and misfortune may be hanging over your head all the time. A bank account is the best provision against this danger. Just A DOLLAR STARTS AN ACCOUNT HERE.
